

Essay Writing

Generally, the topics given in question papers are based on describing a person or place or an event or moments you liked. 6-7 helping points are given on each topic.

The topic which is easy to write about is describing a person.

Steps to write an essay:

- Write the title of the essay and underline it.
- Read each given point carefully.
- Use the help points and frame simple sentences.
- Write at least 3 paragraphs.
- Use first one or two points in detail in the first paragraph. Here you can write 2-3 sentences on each point while describing a person. (eg. name, age, appearance, etc.)
- Use the next 3-4 points in the second paragraph.
- Frame the remaining points in the last paragraph. This would be your conclusion of the essay.
- Make sure you cover all the given points.
- Do not forget to underline those points in the essay.
