

Lesson 5 From Words to Sentences

Subject-Verb sentences

Every sentence has a subject and a verb. 'Subject' is the one who is doing the action like: he, she, we, I, you, it, they, girl, boy, etc and verbs are the action words like: run, sit, stand, look, etc.

When the subject is in singular, then 's' should be added to the verb.

When the subject is in plural, then the verb should not change.

Chants

He sits

She sits

It sits too

You sit

We sit

They sit too

He eats

She eats

It eats too

You eat

We eat

They eat too

He runs

She runs

It runs too

You run

We run

They run too

Make and say more chants using the given verbs:

say

make

get

give

ask

read

play

open

set

stop

let

like

put

find

cut

need

use

turn

see

grow

add

miss

take

talk

want

found

must

move

start

keep

look

know

leave

help

write

show

learn

call

come

think

live

spell

tell

went

change

follow

walk

hear

Sentence Writing Rules

- A sentence should start with a 'capital letter'.
- Sentence should end with a 'punctuation mark':
 - Full stop- '.' for a sentence
 - Question mark- '?' for a question
 - Exclamation mark- '!' for emotions (surprise or excitement)
- Helping verbs cannot come at the end of the sentence.
- Pronouns and nouns generally come in the beginning of the sentence.

Activity 1: Make Sentence

Pick one word from the column A and B and make as many sentences as you can.

I	walk	He	walks
You	run	She	runs
We	jump	Mother	jumps
They	sleep	Boy	sleeps

Activity 2: I say You say!

Read the sentence. Tell the meaning and rewrite the sentence in your own language.

1. She walks.
2. They dance.
3. Radha and Meena talk.
4. We sit.
5. He runs.
6. I sleep.
7. Mother reads.
8. We run.
9. She sleeps.
10. Father writes.