

A) MCQ/Objective type question:

The aim of the story is to tell its readers

- The efforts made to construct the bridge
- The reason for constructing the bridge
- How bridges can be made with huge stones
- That no work done with sincerity goes waste

Lord Rama had a huge army of ...

- Squirrels
- Monkeys
- Horses
- Elephants

What did lord Rama asked his army to do?

- He asked them to build a bridge for him.
- He asked them to build a palace for him.
- He asked them to build a hut for him.
- He asked them to build a wall for him.

What did the monkey tell when he heard about the squirrel's answer?

- He told him that his efforts were useless.
- He told him that his efforts were nice.
- He told him that his efforts will not be recognized.

- He told him that his efforts were less.

What did the squirrel continue to carry?

- The squirrel continued to carry the mud.
- The squirrel continued to carry the stones.
- The squirrel continued to carry the rocks.
- The squirrel continued to carry the pebbles.

B) Very short answers:

Complete the following statement in a few words only:

- The squirrel proved his true love for God by
- The monkey got angry on the squirrel and asked him
- The monkey got annoyed with the squirrel and
- The squirrel landed in
- Lord Rama was touched by squirrels

C) Short answers:

- Where is this story taken from?
- What is the story about?
- How did Lord Rama want to cross the sea?
- How was the squirrel?
- What was the monkey carrying?

D) Long answers:

- How did the squirrel think to help lord Rama?
- What was the attitude of monkeys towards the squirrel and why?