

A Letter to God

1. What was Lencho's reaction about the rain?

Or

How did Lencho react to the rain drops?

Ans: - Lencho was having dinner with his family. Suddenly big drops of rain began to fall from the North East sky. Huge Mountain of clouds could be seen approaching. Lencho was so happy. He went outside to have a pleasant feeling of rain on his body. He thought the falling big raindrops of ten cent pieces and the little ones were five.

2. How did Lencho begin to write a letter to God?

Or

Why did Lencho write his first letter to God?

Ans: - Lencho began to write a letter to God, hoping that he would get help of the form of money from him. The following Sunday at day break, he began to write a letter to God. He began the letter with the address of God. He appealed to send him hundred pesos in order to sow his field again otherwise his family would go hungry in this year.

3. What had Lencho written in his last/second letter to God?

Or

What did Lencho do after counted the money?

Ans: - The moment Lencho counted the money, he became angry. He thought that God would not have made such a mistake. Then he wrote the second/last letter to God. He requested God to send him the rest amount not through the mail. Because he thought that the postal employees were a bunch of crooks.

4. What did the postmaster do in order not to shake Lencho's faith in God?

Or

How did the postmaster respond to Lencho's letter?

Ans: - The postmaster was a fat and amiable man. When he opened the letter, he came to know that Lencho needed money. He did not want to shake his faith in God. So he came up with the idea of answering the letter. So he collected some of money from his employees and friends. He also gave a part of his salary. He put the money in the envelope and sent it to Lencho.