

Maya Bazaar

Summary:

The film 'Maya Bazaar' is a landmark in Telugu film industry. This film was voted as the 'greatest Indian film' in a TV channel's opinion poll. This film was made in Telugu and Tamil. The film was released in 1957. It soon became a milestone in Telugu film industry. The film was a big hit with the cinematography, art direction and the available technology during that time. The actors gave excellent performances in the film. 'Maya Bazaar' is a tribute to Telugu language, culture and customs. The storyline of the film was very simple. It was a story of Paandavas and Kauravas with the Yadavas pitching in. But interestingly, one could never see the Paandavas throughout the film. We could only hear of them!

