

Practice questions

A) MCQ/Objective type questions

1. What was it that all the nine competitors declared a winner for?
  - For their great spirit of sportsmanship.
  - For their hard work.
  - For their personality.
  - For their charm.
2. The competitors and the spectators were excited as it was
  - Their favorite cricket match.
  - The grand finale.

- The first race.
  - None of the above.
3. What did all nine competitors get?
- Gift vouchers.
  - Money.
  - Standing ovation.
  - Car.
4. The other eight competitors did not run the race because,
- They were tired.
  - They got bored.
  - They wanted to help the little racer.
  - They were injured.
5. Special Olympics are arranged for,
- Senior citizens
  - Government servants
  - Soldiers
  - Differently-abled people

B) Very short answers

1. Playing in the true spirit of the game is more important than.....
2. The value of co-operation is greater than the spirit of .....
3. In response to the little racer's cry in pain, all other eight participants turned back to help him instead of .....
4. There was excitement in the competitors and spectators as .....

5. A great event of hundred meter dash was organized for .....

c) Short answers

1. Why didn't the other eight competitors run the race?
2. Who was the winner of the race? Why?
3. Why was it decided that all the nine athletes be awarded gold medals?

D) Do as directed

1. Find the rhyming for 'face'
2. The race began with the gunshot. (Rewrite the sentence in the future tense.)
3. Underline the verbs in the summary.
4. They were standing on the road. (Underline the preposition in the sentence.)
5. Boys are standing. Rewrite the sentence in the singular form.