

A) MCQ/Objective type question:

What does the lesson deals with?

- 'Noise Pollution' and its effect on our health.
- Globalization
- Population
- Corruption

Sound can be measured scientifically in,

- Decibels
- Inches
- Feet
- Kilogram

Following is the example of unavoidable noise;

- Thunder
- Sound made by fire engine
- Beating of drums in a marriage procession
- Loud music

What does the word 'affect' mean?

- Improve
- Influence
- Develop
- Grow

Noise pollution cannot be,

- Controlled
- Ignored
- Stopped
- Avoided

B) Very short answers:

- The real solution to control avoidable noises lies within.....
- A sound which is not pleasant and agreeable to our ears is called .....
- Exploding crackers and playing loud music are the examples of .....
- Hearing loss and many other diseases can be caused due to .....
- One of the examples of unavoidable noise can be.....

C) Short answers:

- In what way can you help reduce noise pollution at home?
- What are the ill effects of noise pollution on our health?
- Can you think of some noises which are intolerable? Give suggestions on how to reduce them.
- Can children help reduce noises? How?
- What way can you make people aware of noise pollution?

D) Long answers:

- Write a summary of the lesson.
- Mention two ways in which noise can prove to be harmful to human beings.