

Practice questions:

A) MCQ/Objective type questions:

1. What does the lesson deal with?
 - 'noise pollution' and its effects on our health.
 - globalization
 - population
 - corruption
2. Sound can be measured scientifically in,
 - decibels
 - inches
 - feet
 - kilogram
3. Following is the example of unavoidable noise;
 - thunder
 - the sound made by fire engine
 - the beating of drums in a marriage procession
 - loud music
4. What does the word 'affect' mean?

- improve
 - influence
 - develop
 - obtain
5. Noise pollution cannot be,
 - controlled
 - ignored
 - stopped
 - avoided

B) Very short answers:

1. The real solution to control avoidable noises lies within
2. A sound which is not pleasant and agreeable to our ears is called
3. Exploding crackers and playing loud music are the examples of
4. Hearing loss and many other diseases can be caused due to
5. One of the examples of unavoidable noise can be

C) Short answers:

1. In what way can you help reduce noise pollution at home?
2. What are the ill effects of noise pollution on our health?
3. Can you think of some noises which are intolerable? Give suggestions on how to reduce them.

5. What way can you make people aware of noise pollution?

D) Long answers:

1. Write a summary of the lesson in your own words.
2. Mention two ways in which noise can be harmful to human beings.