

The Brave Potter

Summary:

This is a funny story about a potter. Once, at night instead of his donkey, he tied a tiger to a tree. The news spread in all the nearby villages. Villagers thought he was very brave. They came to see him. He tried to explain that he had not tied the tiger. But people thought he was being modest. Because of the tiger incident, he was made the General of the Army. He had to ride a horse. But the potter had never ridden a horse. So he told his wife to tie him to the horse. But before she could tie him, the horse started running fast. Potter caught a tree to stop the horse. But the tree was uprooted. Soon he reached the army enemy camp with the tree. The enemy got scared and withdrew from the war. The king honored the potter for his bravery.

