

The Dear Departed – 2

Summary:

When father came out he was surprised to see everyone wearing black clothes. He wanted to know who had died. The sisters lied to him about someone's death. Then he asked Mrs. Slater why his new desk was brought downstairs. Mrs. Jordan told him that Mrs. Slater had robbed it. She also told him that they thought he was dead. The father was shocked. He knew that the sisters had started dividing his valuables. He told them that he is changing his will. All his belongings will go to the person, in whose house he will die. Suddenly, both his daughter wanted to keep the father with them. The father told them that they had not treated him well when he stayed with them. So he was to marry Mrs. Shorrocks on Monday! She was happy to keep him with her. This news was a big shock to everyone.

