

The Journey

Summary:

A young man took leave for marriage. After six months of leave, it was time to return to work. He packed his bag. He felt his trunk was heavy. His father carried the trunk along the hilly road on his back. After reaching the bus stop, father asked his son for his old shoes. The young man saw that father was not wearing shoes. His feet were bare. So he offered his father money to buy a new pair of shoes. But the father refused. He said that he wants only old shoes. In the end, the son gave his hunting boots. They both started their journey back to their home.

