

Practice questions:

A) MCQ/Objective type questions:

1. The master did not disclose the fact that he was a circus man because...
 - There would have been no fuss in letting him into the room.
 - He would have been punished for his carelessness.

- The teachers would have filed a report with the police.
 - He would have been praised for training the tiger so well.
2. Finally, who allowed the master to go to the room where the tiger was?
 - The headmaster
 - The teachers
 - The magistrate
 - The children
 3. Who was the magistrate?
 - He was the chairman of the tiger committee.
 - He was the chairman of the school.
 - He was the chairman of the circus.
 - He was the chairman of the town.
 4. On what condition did the magistrate allow the master to go to the room?
 - On giving a letter
 - On giving money
 - On giving an affidavit
 - On giving a draft
 5. In which language did the master write the affidavit?
 - In English
 - In Sanskrit
 - In French
 - In Arabic

B) Very short answers:

1. When the master asked the reason for not letting him in, the magistrate replied, " it's unlawful to commit suicide". He said so because.....

2. What did the tiger hear when he woke up?
3. Who didn't know Sanskrit?
4. Which language was considered as an official language?
5. Who had no choice but to accept the affidavit?

C) Short answers:

1. The affidavit was an important piece of document for the magistrate. Explain how?
2. Why did the master deliberately write the affidavit in Sanskrit?
3. Why did the magistrate had no choice and had to accept the affidavit?
4. What did the people think, going unarmed in the room?

D) Long answers:

1. Why was the master pleading?
2. What did the master have to state in the affidavit?