

A) MCQ/Objective type question:

The master did not disclose the fact that he was a circus man because...

- There would have been no fuss in letting him into the room.
- He could have been punished for his carelessness.
- The teachers would have filed a report with the police.
- He would have been praised for training the tiger so well.

Finally who allowed the master to go in the room where the tiger was?

- The head master
- The teachers
- The Magistrate
- The children

Who was the Magistrate?

- He was the chairman of the tiger committee.
- He was the chairman of the school.
- He was the chairman of the circus.
- He was the chairman of the town.

On what condition did the magistrate allow the master to go in the room?

- On giving an letter
- On giving money
- On giving an affidavit
- On giving a draft

15 / 57

In which language did the Magistrate write the affidavit?

- In English
- In Sanskrit
- In French
- In Arabic

B) Very short answers:

- When the Master asked the reason for not letting him in, the Magistrate replied, "it's unlawful to commit suicide". He said so because.....
- What did the tiger hear when he woke up?
- Who all didn't know Sanskrit?
- Which language was considered as official language?
- Who had no choice but to accept the affidavit?

C) Short answers:

- The Affidavit was an important piece of document for the Magistrate. Explain how?
- Why did the Master deliberately write the affidavit in Sanskrit?
- What was the Master making the teachers and the Magistrate?
- Why the Magistrate did had no choice and had to accept the affidavit?
- What did the people think going unarmed in the room?

D) Long answers:

- Why was the master pleading?
- What did the master had to state in the affidavit?