

the teachers. They are not letting the master in. The tiger thinks it is very unkind that teachers are calling him a brute! The story is told in tiger's words.

A) MCQ/Objective type question:

Complete the following statement by choosing the best option from the ones given below:

Tigers are superior to men because they:

- Are physically much stronger
- Are more obedient
- Do not kill anyone without reason
- Can perform difficult tricks in a circus

Tiger can perform difficult tricks in a circus easily because:

- They are used to it.
- They are trained.
- They like to perform it.
- They know it by birth.

We cannot keep tiger as a pet because:

- It is a wild animal.
- It can kill us.
- It is difficult to adjust them in our house.
- They don't like us.

B) Very short answers:

- The sentence, "... some even thought that I was some extraordinary creature who might pass through the walls and lie in wait on the roof or in the basements ..." implies that people were extremely.....
- What did the tiger realize as he was walking down the street?
- How did the men behave?
- What was the tiger looking for after feeling tired?
- Where did the teachers send the children for safety?

C) Short answers:

- What made the tiger think that men were strong and fearless?
- How was the behavior of the men on the streets?
- What did the tiger wonder looking at the men on the streets?
- What did the tiger do after entering the headmaster's room?
- What did the teachers do meanwhile they find some other safety mode?

D) Long answers:

- Why do you think the teachers were rude to the Circus Master?
- Why do the people at the circus don't feel scared of a tiger?

