

What is my name?

Summary:

This story is of a housewife. She got married and started taking care of the house. Soon, she got children. She got very busy. She had to take care of everyone. She scrubbed and cleaned the house every day. One day, suddenly she realized that she doesn't remember her own name. She asked everyone, "What is my name?" They called her 'Amma', 'Yemoi', etc. But, no one told her real name. She was sad and worried. Then, she met her school friend. Her school friend recognized her immediately. As soon as the friend saw her, she said, "Sarada! My dear Sarada." Sarada became very happy. That's how she remembered that her name is Sarada. When Sarada went home, she told her husband to call her Sarada from then onwards.

