

Practice questions:

A) MCQ/Objective type questions:

Complete the following statements by choosing the right option from the ones given below:

1. Tigers are superior to men because,
 - They are physically much stronger.
 - They are more obedient.
 - They do not kill anyone without reason.
 - They can perform difficult tricks in a circus.
2. Tigers can perform difficult tricks in a circus easily because,
 - They are used to it.
 - They are trained.
 - They like to perform it.
 - They know it by birth.
3. We cannot keep a tiger as a pet because,
 - It is a wild animal.
 - It is a lazy animal.
 - It is difficult to adjust them to our house.
 - It doesn't like us.

B) Very short answers:

1. The sentence, "... Some even thought that I was some extraordinary creature who might pass through the walls and lie in wait on the roof or in the basements ..." implies that people were extremely.....
2. What did the tiger realize as he was walking down the street?
3. How did the men behave?
4. What was the tiger looking for after feeling tired?
5. Where did the teachers send the children for their safety?

C) Short answers:

1. What made the tiger think that men were strong and fearless?

2. How was the behavior of the men on the streets?
3. What did the tiger wonder looking at the men on the streets?
4. What did the tiger do after entering the headmaster's room?
5. What did the teachers do meanwhile they find some other safety mode?

D) Long answers:

1. Why do you think the teachers were rude to the circus Master?
2. Why do the people at the circus don't feel scared of a tiger?