

3. Many of the television programs are not suitable for family entertainment suggest measure regulate the production and viewing of such programs.

4. Now go through the points given below and develop a story of your own. Give a suitable title to your story.

You are alone at home. Your parents had gone out of station. Your uncle arrived with his family you had to take care of them.

5. Your father had been transferred to another city. The family too shifted. Neighbors helped your family to settle down in the new city.

6. You had gone to the local market. A stray bull entered the market place. People panicked, some pavement shops were damaged. The police and men from a local dairy firm caught the bull.

7. You visited our grandparents in the village in your summer vacation. You were pleasantly surprised to see a lot of advancement in the village. Write a paragraph describing the changes you saw and the time you spent with family and friends.

8. A very fond of gardening and like to spend a lot of time in your garden. Write a paragraph about the pleasure gardening gives you and some interesting things you do.

9. You live in a big city where safety of women is concern. You read about many incidents of eve teasing. Girls drop out of schools due to safety problems. Write a paragraph on the importance of safety of women and what each one of us can do for them.

10. People spend a lot of money on wedding. Most of it is wasteful expenditure. Money thus spent can be put to some better use. Write a about how money can be saved and where it should, instead, be used.

11. We always try to keep our body and clothes very clean, but we don't care about our surroundings. Write all that we can do to keep our house, and school etc. neat and clean.

12. Today we see that there are malls are being established everywhere, even in small cities. How have they affected our life – expenses, availability of goods etc and also the business of small shopkeepers. Write your views on the situation.

13. Narrate the experience of waiting at a bus stand with the help of the following points:

Going to meet your friend - a long queue before the bus stand - bus comes - nobody gets down - disappointment - another crowded bus comes - some get down - some try to get into the bus conductor allows four passengers only - you are the seventh in the queue – envy the people getting a bus - then empty bus comes - get a seat easily - happy.

